

Katia Panaget has been named Director of Primexis' Group Consolidation and Reporting Department

Primexis, a financial consulting and accounting firm, has strengthened its Group Consolidation and Reporting department with the appointment of Katia Panaget as Director. Primexis now has 14 partners, 6 directors, and 370 employees.

With a master's degree in Auditing, Controlling, and Accounting, Katia Panaget started her career in consolidation with a major French dairy cooperative group before joining Primexis in 2015.

Since then, she has been assisting French and international groups with preparing their consolidated financial statements as well as with financial consulting assignments (tax reporting, IFRS standards, and ESEF reporting).

Katia has also developed in-depth expertise in the real estate sector (property development and real estate companies).

"Katia's appointment is in line with the ongoing development of our consolidation and reporting offerings. Katia has distinguished herself through her high level of assistance, recognized by all her clients, as well as through her investment in employee training, notably with introducing e-learning solutions. In 2023, Primexis was once again recognized as a 'Key' player in Consolidation in the Accounting Firm Rankings published by Décideurs Magazine. This appointment and future recruitments demonstrate our determination to maintain this benchmark position in the sector," explains Sébastien Courbe, Primexis Partner and Managing Director.

"I sincerely thank the partners for their trust and my team for their support. I look forward to continuing to assist our clients and develop the skills of our team of dedicated experts," says Katia Panaget, Primexis Group Consolidation and Reporting Director.
